

Exhibit A

Documents Prepared in Support of
City of Renton Best Available Science Critical Areas Regulations and Shoreline
Master Program GMA Integration Project

- “Renton Best Available Science Critical Areas Regulations and Shoreline Master Program GMA Integration,” Jones & Stokes, July 13, 2004.
- “City of Renton Best Available Science Literature Review and Stream Buffer Recommendations,” prepared by AC Kindig & Company and Cedarock Consultants, Inc. on February 27, 2003.
- Stream/lake classification results in the Renton Water Classes Map prepared by AC Kindig & Company and Cedarock, in conjunction with Renton City staff, as most recently issued January 26, 2005.
- “Transmittal of Parametrix Review of Wetlands Regulations,” Jones & Stokes, July 13, 2004; together with “Best Available Science Ordinance Review” by Jim Kelly, PhD, Parametrix, June 28, 2004.
- “Overview and Comparison of Aquifer, Flood Hazard, Geologic Hazard, and Habitat Conservation Regulations to State Example Critical Areas Code,” Jones & Stokes, July 13, 2004.
- “Proposed Renton Comprehensive Plan and Shoreline Master Program Policy Amendments,” Jones & Stokes, January 26, 2005.
- “Proposed Renton Shoreline Master Program Use Environment Amendments,” Jones & Stokes, March 8, 2004 together with the updated Shoreline Environment Map transmitted January 26, 2004.
- “Revised Review Draft -- Renton Critical Area Ordinance and Shoreline Master Program Regulation Amendments,” Jones & Stokes, January 26, 2005. Includes proposed draft Best Available Science Regulation Amendments, January 26, 2005.
- “Agency Comments March 2004 to December 2004,” Jones & Stokes, January 26, 2005.
- “Stream and Lake Code Amendments and Updates: Edits to July 13, 2004 Best Available Science Regulation Amendments,” Jones & Stokes, January 26, 2005.
- “Staff Recommended Adjustments to January 26, 2005 Revised Review Draft Critical Areas Ordinance and Shoreline Master Program Regulation Amendments,” Jones & Stokes, March 2, 2005 together with “City of Renton Wetland Rating System – Field Review,” Parametrix, March 2, 2005.
- “Frequently Asked Questions: Single Family Homes and new Stream/Lake/Shoreline Buffers,” March 8, 2005, prepared by Jones & Stokes for the City of Renton.
- “Responses to Planning Commission Hearing Comments: Renton Best Available Science Critical Areas Regulations and Shoreline Master Program GMA Integration” Jones & Stokes, dated March 9, 2005. Includes ERC Report and Decision dated August 17, 2004, as well as the March 2, 2005 memo above.
- “Meeting with Richard Robohm, State Department of Ecology,” Jones & Stokes, March 15, 2005.
- “Planning Commission Follow-Up Questions,” prepared by Jones & Stokes, March 15, 2005.
- “Updated Responses to City Council Hearing Comments: Renton Best Available Science Critical Areas Regulations and Shoreline Master Program GMA Integration,” Jones & Stokes, March 31, 2005; together with a letter “Critical Areas and Shoreline Master Plan Update: Response to Livable Communities Coalition Letter, March 21, 2005,” by AC Kindig & Co.