Renton-based Providence Health & Services is about to merge with Irvine, California-based St. Joseph Health. PH&S President and CEO Dr. Rod Hochman is the driving force behind that merger and will become president and CEO of the new organization, which will be named Providence St. Joseph Health. The merger is expected to close in May.

Providence will then become the third-largest nonprofit health system in the U.S., behind only Kaiser Permanente and Ascension Health.
