Friday, March 27, 2020 / Issue: 11

With information regarding COVID-19 continually being updated, I've decided to publish this newsletter daily to share what we know with the residents of Renton. In each edition our team will bring you the latest updates from around the city as well as information from state and federal officials and agencies.

Adjusting to the "new normal"

As we complete the first week of Gov. Inslee's "Stay Home, Stay Healthy" executive order, I want to thank the residents of Renton for following the order's guidelines.

I certainly can understand how the fear of the unknown, coupled with the absence of our favorite recreational activities, might be challenging, but I applaud you in working together to help stop the spread of COVID19. In fact, if you're anything like my family, you've found new and innovative ways to fill the current social void in your life and help others as well.

As we continue to adjust to our "new normal" we need to keep those who are struggling in our thoughts. Our COVID-19 resources page has several ways in which you can help or get help. Another great resource for finding essential services is 211.org. I continue to be amazed at the spirit of our community and the different ways people are lending a helping hand.

Our small business owners also can use your help. Community & Economic Development has compiled a COVID-19 resource guide on their website to provide help. We have eliminated permits and fees on some activities and are temporarily allowing late night deliveries to help keep store shelves stocked. We have restaurants all over town open and accepting take-out or delivery orders. The purchase of a gift card would also be appreciated.

At City Hall, we are conducting business as normally as possible with all but essential staff working off site. Again, our COVID-19 resources page has the latest information, phone numbers and links to help answer your questions, as does this newsletter.

Yesterday's newsletter highlighted the sack lunches we are providing Renton seniors. Today we set a new one-day high of 100 lunches! That brings this month's total to 699. Thank you for supporting this important service for our seniors. We are also conducting a survey today to better understand the needs of our seniors.

Earlier today Congress passed the CARES Act, a $2.2 trillion federal stimulus package. The Coronavirus Aid Relief & Economic Security Act earmarks about $3.3 billion for Washington. It will be awhile before we have specific dollar amounts, but cities and counties with populations of 500,000 or more would receive direct aid and Renton will likely be eligible for funding, at least indirectly. The act also includes direct cash payments, extended unemployment insurance payments, and forgivable loans and financial assistance for small businesses and large corporations alike. I will do my best to ensure that Renton gets help for its residents and businesses.

Stay safe and enjoy your weekend. I'll be back with another newsletter on Monday, unless we need to update over the weekend.
