

COVID-19 Update

from Mayor Armondo Pavone

Monday, April 20, 2020 / Issue: 21

Click to learn more...

With information regarding COVID-19 continually being updated, I've decided to publish this newsletter to share what we know with the residents of Renton. In each edition our team will bring you the latest updates from around the city as well as information from county, state and federal officials and agencies.

Google Translation available on website. For additional translation services contact communications@rentonwa.gov.

Next time you're in downtown Renton picking up a to-go meal or coffee, take a minute to check out the latest inspired storefront project created by artist Vikram Madan on the corner of South Third Street and Main Avenue South. It's a tribute to Erasmus, who turned one last week.

Council unanimously passes resolution supporting Renton as site for COVID-19 vaccine facility

Earlier tonight the City Council unanimously passed a resolution supporting our intention of pursuing the siting of a COVID-19 vaccine manufacturing facility in Renton. The resolution authorizes us to hire outside and consulting help, if necessary, and to assist our Community & Economic Development department as they work with business and nonprofit foundation leaders and other key stakeholders in the effort.

More resources for small businesses

I'm very aware of the crisis facing small businesses in Renton. Many are overwhelmed simply trying to make ends meet while adhering to social distancing. Then there's the difficulty in applying for the many state, federal and private financial support options.

Earlier today we announced expanded assistance from our economic development division for local businesses through Startup 425, a collaborative effort of five Eastside cities—Renton, Bellevue, Kirkland, Issaquah and Redmond. We have worked with Startup 425 since 2016.

This new support is free and for businesses, non-profits, sole-proprietors, contractors, artists, gig workers, "essential" businesses and recently laid-off workers. There's one-on-one help with financial assistance programs, a calendar of relevant webinars and other resources, and a map identifying Renton restaurants and cafés open for carry-out. Plus, another partner, Business Impact NW, will help businesses identify, apply for and submit grant and loan applications for economic relief programs. They'll also provide interpretation services for non-English speaking applicants.

Since the start of the pandemic, we have been working with local businesses to provide additional business outreach. Economic development has dedicated three staff members to reach out with assistance. They have established a dedicated small business hotline and email address plus Facebook discussions and the "Renton Business Minute," an opportunity for businesses to tell their story via video on the city's social media channels and publications.

We've also offered to defer B&O, utility and gambling tax returns from March 31, 2020 through May 31, 2020 until June 30, 2020 and waived fees and permits associated with A-frame signs, making it easier for customer pick-up services. I also issued Emergency Order #2020-2, which temporarily suspended the city's late night vehicle noise ordinance allowing deliveries to businesses involved in retail, grocery, pharmaceutical and food.

Chamber presents Renton Live!

I hope you'll join me on Wednesday evening at 6pm as I join the Renton Chamber of Commerce's initial episode of Renton Live! It'll be on the chamber's YouTube channel and will also feature Chief of Police Ed VanValey, Renton Regional Fire Authority Chief Rick Marshall and State Rep. Steven Bergquist. Co-hosts will be Melissa & Josh Hudson and Tara and Benjamin Andrews.

There will also be a cooking demonstration with Rain City Catering chef Jeremy Bryant, wine tips from Vino at The Landing, breathing exercises with Mary Clymer, portrait photo tips from Bruce Hudson from Hudson's Portrait Design and a musical performance from Benicio "Beni" Bryant, who you might remember was a finalist on America's Got Talent.

Farmers Markets deemed essential by governor

Gov. Inslee has deemed Farmers Markets as essential, and we are working towards a June 2 opening of Renton's Farmers Market. Our market will incorporate COVID-19 protocols developed by Public Health – Seattle & King County, the Washington State Farmers Market Association and other farmers markets in the Puget Sound, while continuing to support our local farmers. As we get closer to opening day, we'll have more information in this newsletter and on our social media channels.

Inspections - Building and Development Engineering

Community and Economic Development Department (CED) has been receiving questions from homeowners and contractors regarding how the city is interpreting the construction-related provisions of Gov. Inslee's Stay Home, Stay Healthy Proclamation and related guidance issued by the Governor's Office.

- CED has interpreted the Stay Home, Stay Healthy order to deem new residential and commercial construction as non-essential activities, except that construction of public projects (such as public affordable housing projects) and public components of private projects (such as utilities and streets intended for turnover to the city) are essential activities. Furthermore, CED has interpreted the Stay Home, Stay Healthy order to allow construction related to the order's list of essential activities including supply chain for goods, services, and healthcare.
- Under these interpretations, CED will continue its physical inspections associated with the following city-issued permits:
 - Building permits for occupied residential structures necessary to avoid damage or unsafe conditions;
 - Building permits for buildings that are a necessary component of the community's supply chain for goods, services, and healthcare;
 - Engineering permits for facilities intended to be made part of the city's public infrastructure. Such facilities include water, sanitary sewer, and stormwater utilities intended to be transferred to the city at completion and street improvements intended to be transferred to the city at completion.
- Although CED will not be performing physical onsite inspections for new unoccupied homes or other projects not falling into the above list, some inspections can be accomplished virtually. If you are interested in more information about virtual inspections, please contact the Building Division: 425-430-7200.
- These interpretations are valid as of March 30, 2020 under the governor's guidance in effect as of that date. Please note that these interpretations are subject to change as more information becomes available regarding the efforts to contain COVID-19 or if further guidance is issued by the governor's office.
