

COVID-19 Daily Update

from Mayor Armondo Pavone

Click to learn more...

March 20, 2020 / Issue: 5

With information regarding COVID-19 continually being updated, I've decided to publish this newsletter daily to share what we know with the residents of Renton. In each edition our team will bring you the latest updates from around the city as well as information from state and federal officials and agencies.

Support local businesses during this pandemic

Supporting our local businesses during this pandemic is more important than ever. Local businesses provide more than just jobs; they contribute greatly to organizations, schools, and local nonprofits in our community.

In Renton we are fortunate to have so many businesses making social distancing a little easier by offering to-go and delivery options. The city is helping them by waiving the fees and permits associated with sandwich boards, which will allow advertisement of curbside pick-up.

I hope you'll take the time to patronize the establishments the lists below. Check back often as they are being updated.

Gov. Jay Inslee further emphasized the need to practice social distancing to minimize the spread of the virus. Today he announced that he would be exploring options intended to protect workers who might be particularly vulnerable to the novel coronavirus. His office is working on a policy giving workers over 65 and those with underlying health conditions the legal right to leave work and stay at home for the duration of the outbreak, and the financial means to be able to do that.
