Just Hangin’ Out in Renton

RENTON, WASHINGTON

Birthplace of Jet Aviation
RENTON RIVER DAYS
Reverse: Boeing B-29 Superfortress flying near Mt. Rainier, ca. 1940.
These bombers were made in Renton during WWII.
(RHM# 1985.049.4849)

RENTON RIVER DAYS
Reverse: Swimming lessons at Kennydale Beach, ca. 1960.
(RHM# 2004.005.064)
RETON RIVER DAYS
(RHM# 2004.005.060)

RETON RIVER DAYS
Reverse: Lakeridge Elementary students during recess, 1957.
(RHM# 2010.015.019)
Reverse: Renton Mercantile, a women's clothing store on S 3rd Street owned and operated by Lily Hedberg, ca. 1955. (RHM# 2002.032.4403)

RENTON RIVER DAYS
Reverse: Train in downtown Renton, 1957. (RHM# 2000.127.8791)
Renton High School boys basketball team, 1922-23.
(RHM# 1996.027.4159)

Renton Junction Grocery operated by C. Hansen, ca. 1910.
(RHM# 1994.119.3935)
History is Alive in Renton

Welcome to Renton
RETON RIVER DAYS
Reverse: Renton Fire Station, 1946. This building now houses the Renton History Museum. (RHM# 1988.1OO.2646)

RETON RIVER DAYS
Reverse: Jack Harries (L) and Charles Higdon (R) with the grocery delivery cart for T. Harries Grocery, n.d. (RHM# 41.0600)