Let's Go Renton! is your events guide

SPRING IS HERE, and so is the latest edition of Let's Go, Renton!, our recreation guide. The guide is available at rentonwa.gov/recreation, Renton Community Center, and Don Persson Renton Senior Activity Center.

It's 36 pages of classes, camps, and activities offered for all ages by our recreation division and partners, covering May through August.

CLASSES AND CAMPS

For the children, there are art classes, SAFE babysitting classes, fitness (from Hip Hop to gymnastics), and clinics in soccer, volleyball, softball, and flag football. In addition, there are week-long day camps at Highlands Neighborhood Center and Liberty Park and specialty camps at Renton Community Center.

Adaptive Recreation offerings include Trivia Nights, Club Nights, Carco Theatre Movie Nights, and three barrier-free hiking trips. In addition, there are two after-hours swim events at Henry Moses Aquatic Center, softball, pickleball, and fitness classes.

For adults, we offer women's self-defense, belly dancing, fitness (dance, cardio, body sculpt), art, and sports leagues (coed softball, kickball).

Our seniors (50+) can enjoy day trips, luncheons, and events at the Don Persson Renton Senior Activity Center, dances (Line, Belly), and fitness classes
