Call for Performers—Renton Multicultural Festival, September 22 and 23

RENTON, WA -- The City of Renton will present the second annual Renton Multicultural Festival on September 22 and 23, 2017, and is looking for interested performers including artists, musicians, dance groups and more.

If you or your group are interested in performing at the festival, please email Carrie Nass at cnass@rentonwa.gov with the following information. Submission deadline is June 1st.

- Name of individual or group performing
- Availability (Friday, Saturday, or both days and what times)
- Number of people in group
- Type of entertainment
- Contact information: phone number, email address
- Audio or video file link to an on-line recording
- Brief description of your plans to engage the audience by sharing your story or a demonstration

We're looking for a variety of talents whose performances demonstrate their culture and individuality. Performers must be willing to share how their art form supports their culture and/or engage with festival attendees in a brief demonstration.

The festival's opening night, on Friday, September 22, will be at Carco Theatre from 7 to 10 p.m. Day two, Saturday, September 23, will start at 3 p.m. and run through 7 p.m. at the Renton Pavilion Event Center.
