City of Renton to open cold weather shelter on Monday and Tuesday nights

RENTON, WA – With today's snow and the forecast calling for continued dangerously low temperatures, the City of Renton and the Renton Ecumenical Association of Churches (REACH) will open the city's cold weather shelter on Monday, February 6, and Tuesday, February 7, 2017. The cold weather shelter is located at the Old Chamber building at 300 Rainier Avenue N.

The shelter will open each day at 8 p.m. and close at 7 a.m., when all must vacate.

Where: Old Chamber building, 300 Rainier Avenue N, Renton, WA

Date: Monday, February 6, and Tuesday, February 7, 2017

Check-in and registration: 8 p.m.

Check-out: 7 a.m. The shelter closes and all must vacate

All are welcome. The cold weather shelter (CWS) is barrier free and available for single women and men, couples, and homeless families with children who are living on the streets or in vehicles. Separate sleeping spaces have been prepared for men, women, and families with children. The CWS will be operated by Renton Ecumenical Association of Churches staff from the greater Renton community. All must register at the door. As with all shelters, rules for the health and safety of clients, staff and the broader community will apply.

If you wish to bring a food donation, please drop it off after the shelter is open. Snacks (individually wrapped granola bars, trail mix, sunchips, etc.) fruit like bananas and mandarin oranges; or individually wrapped breakfast pastries are needed. Sleeping bags of all sizes will also be accepted when the shelter is open.

Please contact the Crisis Clinic by dialing 2-1-1 to access shelter information. For more information please contact the City of Renton Human Services office at 425-430-6600 during business hours or visit the City of Renton's website at rentonwa.gov.

PLEASE HELP BY SHARING, POSTING, AND DISTRIBUTING THIS ANNOUNCEMENT. A FLYER IS ALSO INCLUDED, WHICH YOU CAN POST ON YOUR DOOR.
